

Greece audit to be discussed

Results of a six-month educational audit of the Greece Central School District will be made public during a forum at 7:30 p.m. Monday at Apollo Middle School, 750 Maiden Lane.

The audit studied the perceptions of students, staff members, parents and community members. The session will be led by Kathleen Fitzpatrick, executive director of the Leadership for Learning Alliance.

Democrat and Chronicle, Saturday, October 15, 2005